Vienna, Nov. 7. N. S. Letters from Piteſti in Wallachia of the 21ſt paſt relate, that the King of Sweden was arrived there, having avoided paſſing through the Capital Town of that Province; and that General Spaare with his Troops from Bender was expected in 4 or 5 Days. His Majeſty had determined not to enter the Emperor's Territories, 'till he had received an Anſwer from the Holſtein Envoy M. Fabricius, whom he had ſent before to make ſome Propoſition to this Court; which Anſwer having been diſpatched to his Majeſty, 'tis reckoned he will enter Tranſylvania about the middle of this Month. Theſe Letters confirm, that before his Swediſh Majeſty's Departure from Demotica, his Envoy M. Groothuyſen deſired to borrow of the Port, in his Maſter's Name, 3 or 400 Purſes of 500 Crowns each, which the Port refuſed, yet offered his Majeſty 100 Purſes as a farewel Gift; but notwithſtanding his Wants, his Majeſty anſwered, that the Port having refuſed him the Loan he asked, he would not accept any Preſent in Mony. The Swediſh Colonel Daldorff, and the Commiſſary Wolters, who came hither from Hambourg about 3 Weeks ago, with deſign to proceed and meet the King their Maſter, being informed that their meeting him in Tranſylvania or Hungary would be very uncertain, reſolved to ſet out yeſterday for Prague, and if he does not come that way, to go on to Pomerania. Sunday laſt being the Feaſt of St. Charles, whoſe Name the Emperor bears, it was celebrated by this Court, in Honour of his Imperial Majeſty, with all Magnificence. In the Morning the Emperor and Empreſs, accompanied by all the Nobility, the Miniſters, and other principal Perſons of the Court, in very ſplendid Habits, went in Cavalcade to the Cathedral of St. Stephen, where a ſolemn Service was performed, in annual Commemoration of the Image of the bleſſed Virgin of Eoz, being (as is reported) ſeen to ſhed Tears that Day in the Year 1696, which Image was placed in publick view on the High Altar. Their Majeſty's returning to the Palace dined in publick, and Supped in the like manner; there was a very great Appearance at Court on this Occaſion, and the Company was entertained with Conſorts of Muſick. On the ſame Day Count Palfi, the new Palatine of Hungary, treated at Presbourg the States of that Kingdom, who to the number of 300 and upwards, were placed at 5 Tables.

Hambourg Nov. 13. N. S. Letters from Stockholm of the 3d of this Month adviſe, that the Houſe of Count Oxenſtiern was fitting up for the Reception of the Hereditary Prince of Heſſe-Caſſel: But his Highneſs was not expected there till after the King's ſafe Arrival in his Dominions. Count Welling is arrived at Stralſund: That Count having paſſed through the Territories of Mecklenbourg attended by a Guard, gave Occaſion for a Rumour that it was King Staniſlaus. The Conſort of that King, with his Mother and Daughter, have paſſed through Demitz incognito, in their way to Deux-ponts. 'Tis ſaid the King of Poland has ordered 10000 Men to file towards the Frontiers of Heſſe, to obſerve the Motions of that Landgrave's Troops.

Madrid, Nov. 4. N. S. Yeſterday Morning the Marſhal Duke of Berwick ſet out from hence to return to the Court of France, after having made a Ceſſion in the legal Forms of the Dutchies of Liria and Gerica, ſituate in the Kingdom of Valencia, to his eldeſt Son who is called Earl of Tynmouth; which Dutchies were granted to him by the King in 1707, after the Battle of Almanſa, and the Reduction of the ſaid Kingdom. Upon Advice from Antibes, that as the Queen's Journies were regulated ſhe may be expected here about the 10th of December, a Courier has been diſpatched to her Majeſty's Houſhold, with which the Duke de Medina Celi is come back from Alicant to Almanſa, to order them to proceed through the Kingdom of Valencia, and by Saragoſſa to Pampelona; and 'tis ſaid the King will go to Guadalaxara to meet her. This City had propoſed to give a Tournament and a Bull-Feaſt on occaſion of the Royal Marriage, but it has been ſignified by the Court, that all Demonſtrations of Joy which the City ſhall think fit to make will be acceptable, excepting only the Bull-Feaſt. Prince Tſerclaes de Tilly being appointed General Governor of Catalonia, ſet out from Saragoſſa with his Conſort and Family; but at Lerida a Courier overtook him with expreſs Orders to ſuſpend his further Progreſs: Whereupon he diſpatched a Meſſenger to Court, with ſome Repreſentation relating as 'tis ſuppoſed to his ſaid Government, in Anſwer to which the Court ſent back an Order to him to proceed to Barcelona, where 'tis reckoned he might arrive the 28th of laſt Month. 'Tis reported that ſecret Orders were ſent to him at the ſame time, upon which he is to conſult and Act in Concert with the Chevalier d'Aſfeld who Commands the French Troops in that Province. The People of Catalonia continue quiet, but have remonſtrated that 'tis impoſſible for them to pay the additional Contributions which the Court has cauſed to be demanded of them, alledging that their Country is ruined, which is not believed
